Singapore, 29 September 2023 – Resorts World Cruises, Asia’s homegrown international cruise line has been voted Best Cruise Line at the recent TTG Travel Awards 2023. Asia Pacific’s most prestigious travel industry awards was held in Bangkok this year on 28 September 2023. The TTG Travel Awards has been recognizing the best of Asia Pacific’s travel industries for over four decades with the casting of votes by industry professionals and TTG readers across the region.

“Having celebrated our first Anniversary in June this year, we are absolutely delighted and honored to win Best Cruise Line at this year’s TTG Travel Awards 2023, which is reputed as the most coveted and influential award in the region. Within a short span of one year in operations, Resorts World Cruises had already expanded its ships of ‘Resorts Cruising at Sea’ with multiple homeports and new destinations,” said Mr. Michael Goh, President of Resorts World Cruises. “On behalf of Resorts World Cruises, we would like to extend our sincere appreciation and thanks for this recognition, especially to TTG and its readers. We could not have done it without the support of our customers, our travel partners and the various stakeholders, including our crew and staff,” added Mr. Michael Goh.

Resorts World Cruises currently offers weekly departures on the Genting Dream from Singapore and Port Klang for Kuala Lumpur with a combination of 2, 3 and 4 Night Cruises between both cities, as well as to Phuket and Penang. Homeport in Hong Kong, the Resorts World One offers the 2 and 3-Night Sanya cruise, as well as the 2-Night High Seas Weekend Getaway Cruise. Starting 1 October 2023, the Resorts World One will also sail every alternate week from Hong Kong to Okinawa with the 5-Night Cruise.

As 'Resorts Cruising at Sea', each ship offers a myriad of exciting onboard offerings with inclusive dining at selected restaurants, as well as complimentary access to selected LIVE international performances and recreational activities with the likes of water slides, pools, gym and more. Enhancing your cruise experience onboard, guests can also enjoy a series of specially curated thematic cruises packed with activities, workshops, fun-filled games and more, such as our upcoming Musicon Bollywood Music Festival (Genting Dream only), Halloween themed cruise, Tea-licious at Sea, Christmas Wonderland and more.

Resorts World Cruises also offers many choices of onboard accommodations with best-in-class services, featuring Interior Staterooms, Oceanview, Balcony staterooms and the luxury suites, "The Palace" – 'a ship-within-a ship' private enclave with exclusive amenities and facilities, including its own 24-hour European style butler service.
