Singapore, 4 October 2023 – Resorts World Cruises is pleased to celebrate a double victory once again at this year's Travel Weekly Asia 2023 Reader's Choice Awards, winning two consecutive years for the 'Best Cruise Line – Cuisine' and 'Best Cruise Line – Entertainment' categories. As a brand that had launched and commenced operations just over a year, these award recognitions from the industry's professionals and readers of Travel Weekly is a testament to Resorts World Cruises' efforts in enhancing guests' onboard experiences, especially in the entertainment and cuisine areas.

"The Resorts World Cruises family is extremely delighted to celebrate these two wins once again for the 'Best Cruise Line – Cuisine' and also 'Entertainment'. Receiving these recognitions twice in a row since last year is truly an honor, which will only fuel our determination to continue to innovate and offer top notch entertainment and cuisines that our guests can appreciate and enjoy," said Mr. Michael Goh, President of Resorts World Cruises. "Moving ahead, we hope to further replicate our successes in the various categories, which will enable us to provide our guests across our ships with unique and memorable experiences," he added.

Vacationers looking for a cruise vacation with Resorts World Cruises have the option to embark from the different homeports in Asia to enjoy exciting itineraries. Vacationers may embark the Genting Dream from Singapore or Kuala Lumpur (via Port Klang) in Malaysia to enjoy a series of 2, 3 and 4-Night Cruises between both cities, including to Phuket and Penang, as well as a short Weekend Getaway Cruise on the high seas from Singapore. Alternatively, vacationers may embark the Resorts World One from Hong Kong and discover various exotic itineraries including the 2 and 3-Night cruises to Sanya, as well as the 5-Night Okinawa cruise.
