

Resorts World Cruises Offers Special Transport Subsidies for its guests commuting from Mainland China to Hong Kong

Enjoy subsidies of HK$ 150 per person in onboard credits for Resorts World One

The Resorts World One departs 3 times a week from the Kai Tak Cruise Terminal in Hong Kong.

7 February 2024 (Hong Kong) – Holiday seekers from Mainland China will now have more reasons to cruise with Resorts World Cruises from Hong Kong with the introduction of the all-new Special Transport Subsidy (STS) promotion. Travellers commuting from Mainland China to Hong Kong will receive a subsidy of HK$150 per person in onboard credits, which is applicable for guests sailing on the Resorts World One from 16 February – 28 April 2024.

Upon embarkation, guests will just need to present to the ship's front desk their original commuting expense receipts from Mainland China to Hong Kong (by land, sea or air) to receive the complimentary onboard credits. Resorts World Cruises' STS promotion is only applicable for full fare cruise packages with bookings made from now until 28 April 2024, subject to terms and conditions. Guests may utilize the onboard credits for food and beverages, shore excursions, spa & wellness, photography and entertainment on Resorts World One.

"With the introduction of our Special Transport Subsidy (STS) promotion, we look forward to encouraging more travellers from Mainland China to commute down to Hong Kong and cruise aboard the Resorts World One. The launch of the STS promotion is also timely with the Lunar New Year holidays just round the corner, as vacationers from Mainland China are exploring new attractive options and holiday experiences," said Mr. Michael Goh, President of Resorts World Cruises.

With the present winter season, the Resorts World One offers a series of exciting 2, 3 and 5 Night cruise itineraries from Hong Kong to warmer climate destinations, including to Sanya, an international popular tourist hotspot in China with amazing tropical scenery and coastal landscape; to also Da Nang and Nha Trang in Vietnam, which offer stunning nature and breath-taking beaches, colourful cultures and cuisines; as well as to Naha and Miyakojima in Okinawa, Japan, for that raw natural beauty, unique cultural heritage and festivals.

While cruising to these exotic destinations, there is plenty to experience and enjoy on the ship, as the Resorts World One is truly 'A Resort Cruising at Sea'. Discover international and authentic Asian cuisines and beverages across 18 restaurants and bars; a Roman themed Parthenon Pool with a Caesar's Slide and Jacuzzis, fun virtual games; onboard duty-free shopping with a wide selection of brands and products; rejuvenating spas; enrichment workshops; movie nights at sea and more.

For a comfortable and relaxing experience in your room, guests may choose their choice of accommodations from Interior Staterooms to Oceanview, Balcony staterooms and the luxury suites, "The Palace" – 'a luxury ship-within-a ship' private all-suite enclave with exclusive restaurant, sundeck, gym and other facilities, including its own 24-hour European style butler service.
